

Available August 21, 2010

The Western Chautauqua by Timothy R. Tomlinson, a new history of New Piasa Chautauqua, sponsored by the Chautauqua Historical Society and Historic Elsay Foundation

The story of how this Illinois Chautauqua survived and prospered over a 125 year period new information, new pictures, the hard times and good times of a special place

Front cover art: Frederick Oakes Sylvester

Back cover art: Mark Hurd

$15.95, plus $4 shipping and handling.

Order forms available online at www.thewesternchautauqua.com

*When you order this important new book, make your check payable to Jersey Door.
MAIL ORDER FORM TO: CHS, BOX 87, ELSAH, IL 62028*

Did you know New Piasa Chautauqua is the last remaining permanent assembly Chautauqua in Illinois? Did you know there were over fifty such sites in Illinois at one time? How did this community survive and prosper? What made it different from other such communities?

ORDER TODAY: The Western Chautauqua

